Hilarye Dailey Named Deputy Commissioner of Support Services

FRANKFORT, Ky. (May 8, 2018) – Kentucky Justice Secretary John Tilley announced today that Hilarye Dailey has been appointed as deputy commissioner for the Department of Corrections.

Dailey will serve as deputy commissioner of support services which encompasses several areas including fiscal and population management, training, offender information services, information and technology, and parole board support services. She has served as the director of administrative services since July 2015 and managed the department's complex budget.

"Deputy Dailey exemplifies the very dedication and self-sacrifice necessary to accomplish our difficult mission at DOC," Secretary Tilley said. "Her institutional knowledge and commitment to public service has earned her the unequivocal respect of her peers, and she has played a decisive role in helping us manage resources in times of austerity."

A 15-year veteran of the agency, Dailey began her career with the Department of Corrections in 2003 at Blackburn Correctional Complex as the fiscal manager for the prison. She held that role until accepting the position as fiscal branch manager in the department's central office in 2007. She was promoted to assistant director of administrative services in 2010.

Dailey received her bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Kentucky and her master's degree in business administration from Morehead State University. She is a 2009 graduate of the Commissioner's Executive Leadership program.

"I would like to thank Secretary Tilley and Commissioner Erwin for the opportunity to continue to serve the Department of Corrections," said Dailey. "The Office of Support Services provides vital support functions to the entire Department. I am honored to have been selected to head this crucial area."
